

The International Maritime Transport and Logistics Conference

Marlog 11

“Towards a Sustainable Blue Economy”

S. June Kim

Associate Professor & Master mariner

Dr. S. June KIM is an associate professor of the Korea Maritime and Ocean University and master mariner. After boarding the merchant marine for 3 years, he studied history at the Korea University in Seoul from 1993 to 2002 in which he received a doctorate on the English shipping industry during the Industrial Revolution. He worked at the maritime museum in the Korea Maritime University from 2002 to 2007, at the Korea Branch School of Netherlands Shipping and Transport College from 2007 to 2009, at Mokpo Maritime University from 2012 to 2017 and finally joined KMOU in October, 2017. He is interested in the history of shipping economy, a history of navigation and maritime history.