

The International University of Logistics and Transport in Wrocław (Poland)

The IULT is a higher education institution established in 2001. It provides education within first and second-cycle studies in the following fields: logistics, transport, management and civil engineering, including pioneering studies combining learning with internships (dual studies), postgraduate studies and training courses.

The university has a 1-faculty structure (Faculty of Logistics and Transport) – research category B. Bachelor's and Master's studies in Logistics have been certified by The Chartered Institute of Logistics and Transport UK, an organization associating 34,000 TFL specialists in over one hundred countries. The university is the only institution in Poland certified by this prestigious organization, which confirms the highest quality of the curriculum. Graduates of Logistics studies receive a certificate issued by the CILT. The IULT is the only university in Central and Eastern Europe that has been accredited by the British logistics institute. In addition, in 2014, an educational cooperation agreement was signed between the IULT and the Université de Lorraine, a public university of academic, cultural and professional character. Thanks to this, second-cycle students receive two diplomas, have the opportunity to undergo internships in the best French logistics companies, participate in specially organized lectures by French lecturers.

The university cooperates with more than 60 universities and foreign institutions. The international character of the University and extensive contacts with partners allow the IULT to implement the formula of open education. The international activity of the IULT is very important, as it is based on the Internationalization Strategy adopted by the University Senate. It focuses on international activities in such areas as: education, research and cooperation with the socio-economic environment. In addition, according to the "Perspektywy 2022" Ranking of Universities, the IULT was recognized as the best logistics university in the country for the fifth time.
