

Eng. Aashish Puri

Chief Revenue Officer, Maritime Trainer
Institute & Simulator Center

Aashish is currently working as Chief Revenue Officer at Maritime trainer which is an emerging provider of Human Capital Management software and learning solutions to the Maritime Industry. At Maritime Trainer, he is focused on spearheading their global revenue strategies, expanding their market presence, and enhancing their service offerings to better meet the needs of the maritime community. Prior Joining Maritime Trainer he has been working as Global Director of Strategic Partnerships for a UK based company followed by Chief Operational Officer for a Swedish E-learning SAAS company.

Aashish is a licenced Chief Engineer with extensive sailing experience. He has in the past years Headed up the crewing team for Maersk Line managing the entire crew operations of 130 world's largest vessels. In his last position at Maersk as Head of Talent and Development he has been managing complete portfolio of all training and development needs of 15000 crew members with an Annual total budget of 10 Million US dollars.

Aashish has over two decades of experience in maritime operations. He has been working 19 years for the world's biggest shipping company Maersk until 2021 in various positions. He has demonstrated exceptional leadership in optimizing operational efficiency and fostering strategic partnerships. His ability to enhance organizational capabilities and competitiveness has consistently delivered outstanding results. He has proven track record in streamlining business operations, implementing advanced technologies, and driving strategic growth initiatives.