

Impacts of the Fourth Industrial Revolution on Port-City Integration “World Port Sustainability Program Aspects”

Name: Prof. Hyundeok Kim

Job Title: Dean, College of Future Convergence, Suncheon National University, South Korea

Dr. Hyundeok Kim holds a PhD in international transport & logistics from Arab Academy for Science & Technology & Maritime Transport in 2003. He joined Dept. of Logistics, Suncheon National University in 2006. He also is in charge of Advanced Shipping & Port Education Center and Global Logistics Education Center sponsored by government since 2015. He has extensive experiences in shipping management and policy, international transport & logistics and port development. Prior to his academic career in Suncheon National University, he worked as a researcher for two years in Korea Maritime University, Busan.

He takes an active role in supervising PhD researchers and to date he has 5 successful PhD completions (two from Myanmar, one from Egypt and two from Korea) and 12 MBA completions.

Currently he is the Dean, College of Future Convergence and Director, Lifelong Education Center, Suncheon National University and is Vice-president of the Korea Port Economic Association.