Impacts of the Fourth Industrial Revolution on Port-City Integration
“World Port Sustainability Program Aspects”

Assist. Prof. dr. Sonja Mlaker Kač

Short Bio
Assist. prof. dr. Sonja Mlaker Kač studied Communication sciences at University of Ljubljana, Slovenia and as an exchange student also at University of Salzburg, Austria. She finished PhD in logistics in 2014. She works as university teacher and researcher at Faculty of logistics University of Maribor since 2009. She is a head of Career center at Faculty of logistics and she was a head at Laboratory for supply chain management between 2017 and 2019. Since 2019 she is a member of the Senate at the University of Maribor. Assist. prof. dr. Mlaker Kač was also a leader of several national student research projects. Her research field is connected to the topics of collaborative behavior in supply chains, competencies in logistics and organizational culture, social responsibility in logistics. She has been attending many international conferences across Europe and she has been a visiting professor at the University of Lapland, Rovaniemi, Finland, at SibSAU in Karsnoyarsk, Russia and at University of Rijeka, Croatia.