

The International Maritime Transport and Logistics Conference

Marlog 13

Towards Smart Green Blue Infrastructure

Prof. Frank Bezzina

Acting president of the Republic of Malta
Pro-Rector for International Development & Quality Assurance,
University of Malta, Malta

Professor Frank Bezzina (Ph.D) is Pro-Rector for International Development and Quality Assurance at the University of Malta, having previously served as Dean of the Faculty of Economics, Management & Accountancy (2016-2021), Deputy Dean (2012-2016) and Head of the Department of Management (2013-2021). He teaches Management Science & Decision Analysis, Operations Research, Applied Business Statistics, Evidence-based Management, and Business Research Methods.

Frank's research focuses on investigating phenomena in the Organisational Sciences. He has published over 90 papers in various international journals of repute which include the European Management Journal, The International Journal of Human Resource Management and Expert Systems with Applications. He also co-edited book series such as Emerald's Contemporary Studies in Economic and Financial Analysis (Vols. 97 & 98) and Springer's Public Administration, Governance and Globalization (Vol. 22). In 2012, one of his research paper entitled "Investigating the determinants of recycling behaviour in Malta" (co-authored with Stephen Dimech) published in 'Management of Environmental Quality: An International Journal' (Vol. 22 No. 4, pp. 463-485) was awarded the Emerald Literati Network Highly Commended Paper Award for Excellence. Apart from this, he regularly reviews papers for a number of international peer-reviewed journals and conferences.

Professor Bezzina is currently the European University of the Seas (SEA-EU) Vice-Rector for Quality, Chairperson of the University of Malta's Island and Small States Institute and the Quality Assurance Committee and Rector's Delegate for UNESCO World Heritage Applications Steering Committee and the Network of Universities of Small Countries and Territories (NUSCT).

Beyond his academic role, Frank has been engaged in various consultancy assignments and projects for private and public organisations. Most notably, he holds positions as non-executive Director of the Central Bank of Malta and non-executive Chairperson of WasteServ Malta Ltd. Since June 2022, he has been serving as Acting President of the Republic of Malta.

