

The International Maritime Transport and Logistics Conference

Marlog11

“Towards a Sustainable Blue Economy”

Captain Anwar Buftain
Marine Expert, Kuwait.

Capt. Anwar Buftain is a Master Mariner with 30 Years of experience in the marine industry with impeccable knowledge of ship operations, ship newbuilding, and crewing constantly inclined to the Safety and wellbeing of the crew. He has developed various marine research, marine articles, and conducted different training programs for the marine cadets to enhance employability.

Capt. Buftain graduated from South Tyneside College (Marine College) in The United Kingdom, additionally, he is IRCA Certified Lead Auditor ISO standards 9001, 14001, 18001, 9001:2014, and ISM.

He joined as a Deck Cadet and rose to the rank of Master on board. In his current role, he leads the Marine Affairs and Risk Assessment team for Fleet Operations.

Prior to resuming the leading role in Fleet Operations, He had a leading role for 7 years in Fleet Personnel for manning and recruitment services, 6 years of experience in Fleet Newbuilding, and was a part of the team that built 8 VLCC's, 3 Aframax, 4 MR Tankers, and Project Manager for building 2 supply/crew vessels. He was an Internal Company Auditor for ISM and ISO standards.